IN THE HEART OF AMERICA

Wednesday, March 6, 2019 - 7:30pm to Sunday, March 17, 2019 - 2:00pm
Floyd and Delores Jones Playhouse
$8 - $20
Buy Tickets

Performance Showtimes:
Sat, Mar 2, 2019 - 7:30pm
Tue, Mar 5, 2019 - 7:30pm
Wed, Mar 6, 2019 - 7:30pm
Thu, Mar 7, 2019 - 7:30pm
Fri, Mar 8, 2019 - 7:30pm
Sat, Mar 9, 2019 - 7:30pm
Sun, Mar 10, 2019 - 2:00pm
Wed, Mar 13, 2019 - 7:30pm
Thu, Mar 14, 2019 - 7:30pm
Fri, Mar 15, 2019 - 7:30pm
Sat, Mar 16, 2019 - 7:30pm
Sun, Mar 17, 2019 - 2:00pm

“I WANTED TO TRAVEL EVERYPLACE ON YOUR BODY. EVEN THE PLACES YOU'D NEVER BEEN. LOVE CAN MAKE YOUR FEEL SO CHANGED YOU THE WORLD IS CHANGED.”

In the Heart of America
By Naomi Wallace
Directed by Amanda Friou, 3rd year MFA director
March 6 - 17, 2019
Previews March 2 & 5
Floyd and Delores Jones Playhouse, University of Washington

In the shadow of the Gulf War, a young Palestinian woman's quest to learn what happened to her brother, Remzi, a U.S. Army soldier, leads her to a Kentuckian soldier named Craver. Through a poetic web of time leaps and apparitions, we see the two soldiers fall in love against the backdrop of war. Woven into that story, the ghost of a Vietnamese mother, Lu Ming, seeks justice for her infant daughter, a victim of the 1968 massacre at My Lai. Obie Award-winning Playwright Naomi Wallace, known for her signature blend of politics, eroticism, and lyricism, here masterfully rings the gong of histories that still reverberate through our national body.

People Involved: Amanda Friou
Event Type: Performances