Directors

Every other year, our first-year MFA directors make their UW Drama debuts with an evening of one-acts. Don't miss this opportunity to get a first glimpse at what these talented emerging artists will be bringing to our stages during their three years at UW.

ABOUT THE PLAY:
It's Body Awareness Week on a Vermont college campus and Phyllis, the organizer, and her partner, Joyce, are hosting one of the guest artists in their home: Frank, a photographer famous for his female nude portraits. Both his presence in the home and his chosen subject instigate tension from the start. Phyllis is furious at his depictions, but Joyce is actually rather intrigued by the whole thing, even going so far as to contemplate posing for him. As Joyce and Phyllis bicker, Joyce's adult son, who may or may not have Asperger syndrome, struggles to express himself physically – with heartbreaking results.

CONTENT NOTE:
Contains mild adult themes, derogatory language, and partial nudity. Recommended for audiences ages 13 and up.
