Developed by UW Creative Research Fellow Daniel Alexander Jones and starring Jones's alter ego — legendary singer Jomama Jones — Black Light is a captivating musical journey that fuses the Black American Freedom movement, Afromysticism and goddess mythology with the musical influences of Prince, Sade, Diana Ross and Tina Turner. Black Light removes the barrier between artist and audience, allowing them to bear witness, be witnessed and reflect on the present time.

Presented in partnership with UW School of Drama.

A true theatrical original.
