MFA DESIGN PROGRAM INFORMATION

For a program overview and application instructions, see About the MFA in Design program.

CLASS AND ACADEMIC INFORMATION

- Classes, registration, other academic information
- Courses of study for Costume, Lighting and Scenic designers
- Filing for your degree
- Going on leave while completing internship
- Satisfactory Progress
- Thesis information

PRODUCTION AND REHEARSAL INFORMATION

- Production resources (including overview of assignments, production calendar)
- Rehearsal and Tech Schedules (Login Required)
- School of Drama Season
- Shop Calendar
- Production Assignments

RULES AND POLICIES

- Building security, housekeeping, maintenance
- Costume Checkout Policy Memo
- Costume Shop After Hours Rules
- Costume Shop Guidelines Policy Memo
- Design Graduate Students Guidelines and Procedures Policy Memo
- Scene Shop Guidelines Policy Memo
- All School of Drama Policies
- Safety
- Student Counseling Center

FINANCIAL INFORMATION – EMPLOYMENT, INSURANCE, AID, TUITION, TRAVEL

- Payroll and Forms
- Graduate Student Scholarships from the School of Drama
- Health Insurance (GAIP) - when you are an Academic Student Employee
- Health Insurance - when you are not an employee
- Graduate School Executive Order 28
- School of Drama Policy Memo on appointments
- Job descriptions (Scene shop, Costume shop, etc.)
- Office of Student Financial Aid - for graduate students
- Outside Funding - the UW's Graduate Funding Information Service
- Travel funding applications
- Tuition rates
- Union contract

IMPORTANT INFORMATION FOR INCOMING STUDENTS
MISCELLANEOUS INFORMATION

- Reading List for incoming designers
- Computing and email information, including listservs
- School of Drama Directory - faculty & staff contact information

Source URL: https://drama.washington.edu/mfa-design-program-information