Online Teaching

UW Resources:

- UW's coronavirus information page
- Canvas help for instructors
- Zoom (And from A&S tech team: best practices and tips and tricks)
- Center for Teaching and Learning's guide to teaching remotely
- UW Libraries guide to streaming video

Other UW Offices' and Departments' guides to teaching online:

- College of A&S response and resources
- History
- Dance

Drama/Theatre specific online teaching and research resources:

- Zoom scenework instructions
- Zoom audio teacher guide
- Online teaching resources for theatre design and technology (from Matt Kizer)
- Online research zoom sessions, supported by ATDS - April 20-May 1 calendar
- UW Drama Library
- NY Public Library Theatre Division - remote research guide
- Theatre grad students personal library loan
- Teaching Performing Arts During The Pandemic (HowlRound)
- Working in the Theatre (American Theatre Wing)
- Dance Association guide to moving dance based pedagogy online

Performances, art, etc. online:

- UW Libraries streaming arts
- Met Opera
- UK National Theatre’s youtube channel
- Virtually tour museums (Forbes)
- Segal Theatre Centre talks
- Drama online
- Screen Studies

Other:

- UW Counseling center - Coping with Stress Related to Coronavirus Outbreak
- UW Student technology loan program
- COVID-19 Resources for UW Community Members
- The Chronicle of Higher Ed Advice Guide
Remote Teaching Resources for Business Continuity (spreadsheet by Daniel Stanford, DePaul)

School of Drama
University of Washington
101 Hutchinson Hall, Box 353950
Seattle, WA 98195-3950

Phone: (206) 543-5140
Fax: (206) 543-8512
Email: uwdrama@uw.edu

Source URL: https://drama.washington.edu/online-teaching