Project Cost Accounting (PCA) is a system designed to collect information that cannot be captured by the current budgeting system.

Most University systems are set up to use PCA coding. There are three categories: Task, Option and Projects.

Please see Kathy if you have coding questions.